CHARACTER APPEARANCE

Xtlri eyes, are a mesmerizing shade of azure, betray an intelligence far beyond its diminutive form, and its laughter echoes with a haunting melody that sends shivers down the spine. Yet, despite its sinister appearance, the imp serves Krostonid with unwavering loyalty, its every action guided by the inscrutable will of the Great Old One. Together, master and minion weave a tapestry of darkness and deception, their alliance forged in the shadows of ancient secrets and forbidden knowledge.

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

In the depths of despair that shroud the underbelly of Port Nevarellon, there exists a figure shrouded in the shadows of misfortune and exile—Krostonid, a dragonborn whose life has been a tapestry woven with threads of cursed fate and forsaken kinship. Cast aside by his own cohort, branded with the stigma of calamity, Krostonid's existence is a testament to the harsh whims of destiny.

Born into a cohort already wary of his presence, Krostonid's belief in his cursed nature only deepened as misfortune seemed to follow in his wake. But it was the blood plague, that cruel harbinger of death, which sealed his fate. Blamed for the devastating scourge that decimated his cohort, Krostonid was cast out, his own mother wielding the blade that severed his finger from his hand—a final act of betrayal that marked his exile for eternity.

For two decades, Krostonid has wandered the labyrinthine sewers beneath Port Nevarellon, his existence a solitary dance with the darkness. A life of survival etched with the scars of abandonment and the echoes of a once-forgotten kinship. Yet, amidst the despair, a glimmer of destiny beckons—a shard of glass, curious and enigmatic, housing the essence of an ancient alien intelligence known only as the Great Old One.

The shard of glass, a relic of arcane mystery, became the conduit through which the Great Old One reached out to Krostonid—a promise of power and purpose in exchange for unwavering servitude. Bound by ritual and oath, Krostonid's journey took a dark turn as he delved into the forbidden depths of eldritch knowledge, his mind a vessel for the inscrutable designs of his newfound patron.

Embracing the gifts bestowed upon him by the Great Old One, Krostonid now walks a path veiled in shadows and secrets, his loyalty tethered to an entity beyond mortal comprehension. Yet, with each invocation of eldritch power, the whispers of doubt linger—does salvation lie in servitude, or does Krostonid's fate remain entwined with the cursed threads of his past?

As the shadows deepen and the tendrils of the Great Old One's influence extend, Krostonid stands at the precipice of destiny, torn between the allure of power and the echoes of his forsaken kinship. In the labyrinth of Port Nevarellon's sewers, a dragonborn of cursed fate navigates the treacherous currents of loyalty and redemption, his path shrouded in uncertainty and bound by the enigmatic pact with an ancient alien intelligence.
